

WORKSHOP FOR VETS

Beyond SAMM – Where are we headed?

Lincoln University Dairy Farm (LUDF)
Thurs 25th March 2010

Departs: Christchurch Convention Centre 0815hrs
Returns: 1730hrs

Cost: $110 for DCV members & IDF Conference registrants including GST
$200 for Non-DCV members and non-IDF conference delegates

Register for the IDF International Mastitis Conference and select “Vet Workshop” from the Technical Tours.
Places limited to 60 so get in quick!

Guest Speakers: Theo Lam from the UGCN (Dutch Udder Health Network), John Penry and Rod Dyson from Countdown Downunder, Australia.

Facilitators: Jane Lacy-Hulbert (DairyNZ and NMAC), Scott McDougall (Cognosco, AHC Morrinsville) and Jess Shelgren (DCV).

This one day workshop will introduce you to:

- International learning's from extension programmes in Australia and The Netherlands
- New vision for mastitis extension in New Zealand
- Practical training in techniques that you could use with your clients
- Motivating farmers through demonstrating the 'cost' of mastitis on their farm
- Building relationships with clients to implement on-farm training and consulting
- Valuing your knowledge and mentoring potential

The workshop will include a cow-side session so please bring clean overalls and (scrubbed!) outdoor boots or shoes – aprons and disposable overshoes will be provided.

Brought to you by DairyNZ, National Mastitis Advisory Committee and Dairy Cattle Vets NZ